RAILROAD ACCIDENTS-THREE LIVES

At the Ringgold Station on the Catawissa and Williamsport Railroad, about eighty eight miles from Philadelphia, Pa., at a little after 3 o'clock p. m. of the 7th inst., the train which left Tamaqua at 2 p. m. had been waiting upon the main track about forty minutes for the arrival of the up train from Port Clinton, when a tremendous explosion took place, sounding like the discharge of a heavy cannon. In about fifteen seconds, pieces of boards began to fall upon and about the passenger cars, forcing upon the passengers the unwelcome intelligence that the locomotive of their own train had burst its boiler. Upon examination imriediately, it was found that the part of the boiler not blown away was red hot; that the upper part of the boiler, the "roof and dome," were utterly blown off. Pieces of iron, weighing probably from 150 to 200 pounds, were thrown on either side about 100 yards listant. One man was killed instantly, and the body, nearly denuded, was thrown upon the roof of the bagbage car. Another was found among the rubbish upon the ground, his skull horribly broken in, and death ensued in fifteen minutes. Another was thrown upon the wood in the tender, badly bruised and scalded, and died in about seven hours, after suffering untold agony. These men belonged to the train, and severally served as baggagemaster, fireman and brakeman. The engineer was at a little distance, and

Soon after this accident, two loaded coal trains started upon the side track for Port Clinton. The forward train, when a mile on its way, ran off the track at the switch, breaking up one locomotive and thirty-one cars. Both accidents are believed to have resulted from carelessness.

FIRES.

On Wednesday night about 12 o'clock a fire broke eral houses on the opposite side of the street were considerably scorched, and some fine shade trees were ruined. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

GITY ITEMS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.-The Opera of Norma on Wednesday night, had one fresh point in the debut of Mis-Behrend as Adal risa. This young lady has been favorably known as a Concert singer, and stimulated by her success in that way, has essayed Opera. As a native of New York, other things equal, she is entitled to especial consideration in the new profession which she has undertaken. As every possible allowance is to be made for a first appearance, all that can be expected of a debutante is that she should meet with a fair degree of favor, which was the case on Wednesday night. Miss Behrend is, we believe, a pupil of M. Bagioli. She has a soprano voice, more adapted to the declamatory than the florid style, and in that capacity made her best points. She was called before the curtain, and Madame Lagrange, with the liberality of a true artist-for eminence is sometimes generous-would not share with the debutante the bouquets thrown, but bestowed them entirely on her.

-Verdis Il Trocatore will be given to-night. -On the 17th of the month (Saturday of next week) Mr. Eisfeld will give a dramatic, vocal and instrumental concert, with all the members of the Philharmonia Society, Mr. Badiali, Miss Brainard, Mr. Hoffman, and others-and Mr. Donald McLeod to recite the text explanatory of Beethoven's music to Gethe's Egmontan entertainment which promises to be lyrically the MARRIAGE OF AN EDITOR .- Mr. William Cassidy, well known as the editor of The Albany Atlas, was yesterday united in marriage to Miss Lucie Rochefort, daughter of B. Rochefort, esq., of this city. Mr. Cassidy was chief editor of The Atlas for a period of ten years, and since The Argus and Atlas were merged into one journal, in January last, he has continued to be the principal editor. Mr. Cassidy belongs to the Soft wing of the Democratic party in this State, but he has now yielded to the softer influence of another party, and consented to a hymeneal, as he is known to favor a conchological fusion. Annexed is an account of the interesting matrimonial exercises which took place yesterday morning at the Church of St. Anne, (Catholic.) Asterplace. The ceremony, which com-menced at 10 a.m., and lasted about an hour and a quarter, was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Forbes, aster of the church, and his assistant, the Rev. Mr. Hinsella. There was quite a large number in attendance, but many were doubtless kept away by the rain. Among those present we observed Bishop Laughin of Brooklyn, the Very Rev. J. J. Courcy, Vicar General from Albany, and the Rev. George Mc-Clockey, paster of the Church of the Nativity. marriage rites were of course conducted in the Roman Catholic form, and the exercises were solemn and impressive. Weber's Mass was performed by the choir. Mr De Witt Clinton Cassidy, the groom's brother, officiated as groomsman, and Miss Felicia Rochefort, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid. Mr. Cassidy, the bridegroom, is a tall, fine-looking gentleman, seemingly about 35 years of age, and wears glasses. The bride is pretty, blooming, and dignified; she was dressed very tastefully, in a rich white more antique, illusion vail, wreath of orange flowers, with brooch, earrings, and bracelets of pearls. At the conclusion of the cer emony-the usual congratulations of friends being omitted-the bridal party immediately left the church, and were to set off the same day en route for Washington and Richmond, to be absent until the 25th inst. Mr. Cassidy, being a delegate to the Cincinnati Convention, will probably take a trip thither next menth with his bride.

ABERICAN INSTITUTE ELECTION-The annual election took place at the rooms of the American Institute yesterday with the following result: President, Robert L Pell; Vice-Presidents, D. Meredith Reese, William Hall, Edwin Smith; Recording Secretary, Henry Meigs; Corresponding Secretary and Agent, Wm. B. Leonard; Trensurer, Edward T. Backhouse; Finance Committee, John A. Bunting, N. G. Bradford, B. Lewis, Jr., John M. Reed, John Mcliveen.

PRESENTATION TO POLICE CAPTAIN SPEIGHT,-Francis C. Speight, esq., Captain of the Twenty-first Ward Police, was visited at his residence, No. 133 East Thirty fifth street, last evening by a large number of his friends, and presented with a very elegant gold watch and chain as a mark of their respect for him as a citizen and an officer. The presentation was made by Dr. Bradford of the Police Surgical Staff in behalf of the donors, and was appropriately responded to by the donce, after which a handsome collation was partaken of by the company. Capt. S. is a vigilant and valuable officer, and as such is worthy of the mark of esteem which was bestowed upon him.

THE EHRICHS.-We are desired to say that it has been erroneously stated in several newspapers that Joseph and Moses Ehrich, arrested a few days since charged with receiving stolen goods, were discharged by Judge Daly of the Court of Common Pleas. Such is not the fact, they were discharged by Judge Davies of the Supreme Court.

INFANTICIDE.—The body of a female child was INFANTICIDE.—The body of a female child was found, on Thursday morning, in the water closet of house New 222 Centre street, and taken to the Fourteenth Ward Police Station. The skull of the infant was fractured, and its body otherwise injured. An examination was made by Dr. Ferguson, who was of the opinion that the injuries were influted shortly after birth. Coroner Connery held an inquest upon the body, and the Jury rendered a verdict of "Death by lejuries received at the hands of some person unknown to the Jury." Efforts were made to find the mother of the child, but they proved unsuccessful.
